Pre-Service Music

“Sinfonia in G”
Franz Beck

Please Stand

The Processional

“Pomp and Circumstance Military March” Opus 39, No.1
Edward Elgar

[Gentlemen please remove caps now and throughout the Service]

The Invocation

The Psalmody

Psalm 98

- P: Sing to the Lord a new song, for he has done marvelous things;
C: his right hand and his holy arm have worked salvation for him.
P: The Lord has made his salvation known
C: and revealed his righteousness to the nations.
P: He has remembered his love and his faithfulness to the house of Israel;
C: all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.
P: Shout for joy to the Lord, all the earth,
C: burst into jubilant song with music;
P: make music to the Lord with the harp,
C: with the harp and the sound of singing,
P: with trumpets and the blast of the horn -
C: shout for joy before the Lord, the King.
P: Let the sea resound, and all that is in it,
C: the world and all who live in it.
P: Let the rivers clap their hands,
C: let the mountains sing together for joy;
P: let them sing before the Lord,
C: for he comes to judge the earth.
P: He will judge the world in righteousness
C: and the peoples with equity.
All: Glory be to the Father and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now and will be forever. Amen.

The Hymn of Praise

“The Church’s One Foundation”
Lutheran Service Book (LSB) 644

1. The Church’s one foundation is Jesus Christ her Lord;
She is His new creation by water and the word.
From heav’n He came and sought her to be His holy bride;
With his own blood He bought her, and for her life He died.

2. Elect from ev'ry nation, yet one o'er all the earth;
Her charter of salvation: one Lord, one faith, one birth.
One holy Name she blesses, partakes one holy food,
And to one hope she presses with ev'ry grace endued.
3. Yet she on earth has union with God, the Three in One,
And mystic sweet communion with those whose rest is won.
O blessed heav'nly chorus! Lord, save us by Your grace
That we, like saints before us, may see You face to face.

The Hymn

“Beautiful Savior”
Lutheran Service Book (LSB) 537

1. Beautiful Savior, King of Creation,
Son of God and Son of Man!
Truly I'd love Thee, Truly I'd serve Thee,
Light of my soul, my joy, my crown.
2. Fair is the sunshine, Fair is the moonlight,
Bright the sparkling stars on high;
Jesus shines brighter, Jesus shines purer,
Than all the angels in the sky.
3. Beautiful Savior, Lord of the nations,
Son of God and Son of Man!
Glory and honor, Praise, adoration,
Now and forevermore be Thine!

The Collect for New Ventures

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

The Benediction

*[Gentlemen put on their caps for the Recessional of faculty and officials.
Students will NOT recess, but are free to meet with family and friends AFTER the recessional
passes by them and out of the Field House.]*

Pre-Service Music

Please stand

The Processional

“Pomp and Circumstance Military March” Opus 39, No.1
Edward Elgar

[Gentlemen please remove caps now and throughout the Service]

The Invocation

The Psalmody

Psalm 98

P: Sing to the Lord a new song, for he has done marvelous things;

C: his right hand and his holy arm have worked salvation for him.

P: The Lord has made his salvation known

C: and revealed his righteousness to the nations.

P: He has remembered his love and his faithfulness to the house of Israel;

C: all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

P: Shout for joy to the Lord, all the earth,

C: burst into jubilant song with music;

P: make music to the Lord with the harp,

C: with the harp and the sound of singing,

P: with trumpets and the blast of the horn -

C: shout for joy before the Lord, the King.

P: Let the sea resound, and all that is in it,

C: the world and all who live in it.

P: Let the rivers clap their hands,

C: let the mountains sing together for joy;

P: let them sing before the Lord,

C: for he comes to judge the earth.

P: He will judge the world in righteousness

C: and the peoples with equity.

All: Glory be to the Father and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now and will be forever. Amen.

The Hymn of Praise

“The Church’s One Foundation”
Lutheran Service Book (LSB) 644

1. The Church’s one foundation is Jesus Christ her Lord;
She is His new creation by water and the word.
From heav’n He came and sought her to be His holy bride;
With his own blood He bought her, and for her life He died.

2. Elect from ev'ry nation, yet one o'er all the earth;
Her charter of salvation: one Lord, one faith, one birth.
One holy Name she blesses, partakes one holy food,
And to one hope she presses with ev'ry grace endued.
3. Yet she on earth has union with God, the Three in One,
And mystic sweet communion with those whose rest is won.
O blessed heav'nly chorus! Lord, save us by Your grace
That we, like saints before us, may see You face to face.

The Hymn

“Beautiful Savior”
Lutheran Service Book (LSB) 537

1. Beautiful Savior, King of Creation,
Son of God and Son of Man!
Truly I'd love Thee, Truly I'd serve Thee,
Light of my soul, my joy, my crown.
2. Fair is the sunshine, Fair is the moonlight,
Bright the sparkling stars on high;

Jesus shines brighter, Jesus shines purer,
Than all the angels in the sky.

3. Beautiful Savior, Lord of the nations,
Son of God and Son of Man!
Glory and honor, Praise, adoration,
Now and forevermore be Thine!

The Collect for New Ventures

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

The Benediction

*[Gentlemen put on their caps for the Recessional of faculty and officials.
Students will NOT recess, but are free to meet with family and friends AFTER the recessional
passes by them and out of the Field House.]*

BACCALAUREATE SERVICE

Saturday, May 14th, 2022

How is a Baccalaureate service different from a graduation exercise? Quite simply the graduation or commencement exercise celebrates the fact that a student has completed all the academic work required in order to earn a certain degree. A baccalaureate service celebrates the calling of God in that person's life into a specific vocation. You will notice that not all the vocations celebrated today are professional church vocations. They are, however, all Christian vocations. During our service today, the hymns and the Scripture readings celebrate the fact that God in his grace is calling these women and men into his service in multiple church work vocations. Our prayer of thanksgiving is that they joyfully hear God's call in their life, confident that His plans for them are good plans.

The Prelude

Pièce d'Orgue (BWV 572)
J. S. Bach

Please stand as the Processional begins

The Processional Hymn

"Thy Strong Word"
Lutheran Service Book (LSB) 578

1. Thy strong word did cleave the darkness; At thy speaking it was done
For created light we thank thee, While thine ordered seasons run.
Alleluia, alleluia! Praise to thee who light dost send!
Alleluia, alleluia! Alleluia without end!
2. Lo, on those who dwelt in darkness, Dark as night and deep as death,
Broke the light of Thy salvation, Breathed thine own life-breathing breath.
Alleluia, alleluia! Praise to thee who light dost send!
Alleluia, alleluia! Alleluia without end!
3. Thy strong Word bespeaks us righteous; Bright with thine own holiness,
Glorious now, we press toward glory, And our lives our hopes confess.
Alleluia, alleluia! Praise to Thee who light dost send!
Alleluia, alleluia! Alleluia without end!
4. From the cross Thy wisdom shining Breaketh forth in conqu'ring might;
From the cross forever beameth All Thy bright redeeming light.
Alleluia, alleluia! Praise to Thee who light dost send!
Alleluia, alleluia! Alleluia without end!
5. Give us lips to sing Thy glory, Tongues Thy mercy to proclaim,
Throats that shout the hope that fills us, Mouths to speak Thy holy name.
Alleluia, alleluia! May the light which Thou dost send Fill our songs with alleluias, Alleluias without end!
6. God the Father, light-creator, To Thee laud and honor be.
To Thee, Light of Light begotten, Praise be sung eternally.
Holy Spirit, light-revealer, Glory, glory be to Thee.
Mortals, angels, now and ever Praise the holy Trinity!

[Gentlemen please remove caps now and throughout the Service]

The Invocation

The Prayer

The Psalmody

Psalm 67

P: May God be gracious to us and bless us

C: and make his face shine upon us;

P: may your ways be made known on earth,

C: your salvation among all nations.

P: May the peoples praise you, O God;

C: may all the peoples praise you.

P: May the nations be glad and sing for joy,

C: for you rule the peoples justly and guide the nations of the earth.

P: May the peoples praise you, O God;

C: may all the peoples praise you.

P: Then the land will yield its harvest,

C: and God, our God, will bless us.

P: God will bless us,

C: and all the ends of the earth will fear him.

All: Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Please be seated

The First Reading [Theme verse]

Isaiah 64:1-8

L: This is the Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

L: This is the Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

The Choral Anthem

“Alleluia”

Elaine Hagenberg

Please stand

The Holy Gospel [for the Fourth Week of Easter]

John 10:22-30

L: This is the Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

The Canticle

“We Praise You and Acknowledge You, O God”
LSB 941

~ a versification of the Te Deum laudamus ~

1. We praise You and acknowledge You, O God, to be the Lord,
The Father everlasting, by all the earth adored.
To you all angel powers cry aloud, the heavens sing,
The cherubim and seraphim their praises to You bring:
“O holy, holy, holy Lord God of Sabaoth;
Your majesty and glory fill the heavens and the earth!”
2. The band of the apostles in glory sing Your praise;
The fellowship of prophets their deathless voices raise.
The martyrs of your kingdom, a great and noble throng,
Sing with the holy Church throughout all the world this song
“O all majestic Father, Your true and only Son,
And Holy Spirit, Comforter—forever Three in One!”
3. You, Christ, are King of glory, the everlasting Son,
Yet You, with boundless love, sought to rescue ev’ry one:
You laid aside Your glory, were born of virgin’s womb,
Were crucified for us and were placed into a tomb;
Then by Your resurrection You won for us reprieve—
You opened heaven’s kingdom to all who would believe.
4. You sit in splendid glory, enthroned at God’s right hand,
Upholding earth and heaven by forces You command.
We know that You will come as our Judge that final day,
So help Your servants You have redeemed by blood, we pray;
May we with saints be numbered where praises never end,
In glory everlasting. Amen, O Lord, Amen!

Please be seated

The Sermon

Rev. Dr. R. Lee Hagan
District President, Missouri District
The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod
St. Charles, MO

The Hymn of Response

“How Clear Is Our Vocation, Lord”
LSB 853

1. How clear is our vocation, Lord, When once we heed Your call:
To live according to Your Word, And daily learn, refreshed, restored,
That You are Lord of all, And will not let us fall.
2. But if, forgetful, we should find Your yoke is hard to bear;
If worldly pressures fray the mind, And love itself cannot unwind
Its tangled skein of care: Our inward life repair.

3. We marvel how your saints become In hindrances more sure;
Whose joyful virtues put to shame The casual way we wear your name,
And by our faults obscure Your pow'r to cleanse and cure.
4. In what you give us, Lord, to do, Together or alone,
In old routines or ventures new, May we not cease to look to You,
The cross You hung upon, All you endeavored done.

The Prayers

Included in our thanksgivings and petitions are prayers prepared by the following students in programs recognized in this service:

Lutheran Education – Bennett Reisler
Director of Church Ministries – Jessi Kirby

(At the conclusion of each petition the pastor will say “Lord, in Your mercy,” to which the congregation will respond “Hear our prayer.”)

The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

The Benediction

P: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

C: Amen.

[Gentlemen put on their caps for the Recessional]

The Recessional Hymn

“Crown Him with Many Crowns”
LSB 525

1. Crown Him with many crowns, The Lamb upon His throne;
Hark how the heav’nly anthem drowns All music but its own.
Awake, my soul, and sing Of Him who died for thee,
And hail Him as thy matchless king Through all eternity.

2. Crown Him the virgin's Son, The God incarnate born,
Whose arm those crimson trophies won Which now His brow adorn:
Fruit of the mystic rose, Yet of that rose the stem,
The root whence mercy ever flows, The babe of Bethlehem.
3. Crown Him the Lord of Love. Behold His hands and side,
Rich wounds, yet visible above, In beauty glorified.
No angels in the sky Can fully bear that sight,
But downward bend their wond'ring eyes At mysteries so bright.
4. Crown Him the Lord of life Who triumphed o'er the grave
And rose victorious in the strife For those He came to save.
His glories now we sing, Who died and rose on high,
Who died eternal life to bring And lives that death may die.
5. Crown Him the Lord of heav'n, Enthroned in worlds above,
Crown Him the king to whom is giv'n The wondrous name of Love.
Crown Him with many crowns As thrones before Him fall;
Crown Him, ye kings, with many crowns, For He is king of all.

“Now Thank We All Our God”
S. Karg-Elert

Academic Apparel

Caps and gowns have been in use in the United States since colonial times, but it was not until 1895 that an Intercollegiate code was prepared, regulating the design or pattern of the gowns and hoods and the colors and materials to be used.

The three types of gowns generally worn are made of black material. The bachelor's gown has long, pointed sleeves; the master's is made with a long, closed sleeve and a slit for the arm. The doctor's gown has a full, round, open sleeve. It is faced with velvet and has three bars of velvet on each sleeve. The black mortarboard style cap is worn for all degrees, but only doctors or presidents of institutions may wear a gold tassel.

The hood is the most important and distinctive feature of the academic costume. It enables anyone to distinguish at a glance the various ranks and at the same time recognize the university which has given the degree.

The doctor's hood, of black cloth matching the gown, is four feet in length and made with a wide panel. The master's and bachelor's hoods are three and one-half and three feet in length, respectively. The hoods for all the degrees are lined with silk in the official academic color or colors of the institution which has conferred the degree. The colors are not necessarily the same as the school's athletic colors, although in many cases they are. Many schools that use the same colors distinguish themselves by using different shades of that color. Where there is more than one official color, the chevron is used. Concordia's colors are blue and white, so hoods will include those colors as well as the color of the major.

The binding or trim of all the hoods is velvet; two, three, and five inches wide for the bachelor's, master's, doctor's degrees respectively. The color of this velvet trim indicates the department of learning or faculty to which the degree pertains.

Commencement Symbols

The mace served as a war club in medieval times, and later came to represent the protection and preservation of knowledge as universities explored ideas within and across many disciplines. CUW's mace displays our four core values and the University seal. At CUW, we typically entrust the mace with the faculty chair, although at many institutions it is carried by the senior faculty member who represents the authority of the faculty to approve the granting of degrees.

Finally, the academic banners represent CUW's six schools: Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Education, Health Professions, Nursing and Pharmacy. Each banner is carried by a faculty member or a student from that school.

Ceremony Information

Photography: Empire Photography will be taking photos of your graduate several times today. If you'd like to snap a photo of your graduate, you are asked to remain in your seat while doing so. We ask that you do not occupy the aisles for any reason during the ceremony. Each graduate is photographed as they receive their diploma. Commencement is a once-in-a-lifetime moment so don't miss out! If you have any questions, please email Empire Photography at customerservice@empirephotos.com.

Safe exit: Campus Safety is committed to ensuring the safety and security of our guests who will be leaving graduation and walking to their vehicles. The roadway in front of the Field House will be closed to vehicular traffic for one hour after graduation. Guests with limited mobility can be picked up on the north end of the roadway or directly west of the Field House entrance in the adjacent parking lot. They can also be picked up at the Administration Building entrance. It is the experience of the staff that the roadways outside of campus will become gridlocked for an hour and a half after graduation ends. This is due to the major construction taking place near campus at this time. Please be patient. Thank you!
